Vern Freeman Dinner

Note of Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my many, many friends who honored me at my retirement dinner Friday evening.

I have enjoyed working with the people of Albany in the past years and it is indeed gratifying to know that I have made so many fine friends.

I particularly want to thank the "committees" who planned such a gala evening under such adverse conditions. (I was underfoot most of the time and forever bursting in on a secret meeting.) They certainly made the evening one I shall always remember.

Again, my thanks to all of you, and even though I may not be residing in Albany, it will always be "home."

Sincerely,
VERNON FREEMAN

NOTICE

Because Bob Demis is one of those who quietly goes about helping others, the committee planning his dinner is anxious to hear from any group which would like to honor him at his retirement dinner Friday night, June 7. It is known he has donated items to assist many organizations, but there may be others unknown to the committee. If you would like a spot on the program, please contact Dr. Michael Floyd, 526-2053 as soon as possible.

Nearly 250 Associates, Friends Pay Tribute To Inspector Freeman

Two hundred and forty police associates, fellow workers at Albany City Hall and friends paid tribute to Police Inspector Vern Freeman at his retirement dinner Friday night at the Fratellanza club in Oakland.

With Inspector Art Smith as master of ceremonies, the program included many presentations plus a slide show with suitable commentary and background music outlining high lights of Freeman's life.

Mayor Richard O. Clark presented a resolution from Albany City Council; Bette Rhodes and Bud Rooney, fishing gear and two slightly dripping frozen fish from Albany Municipal Employees association; Supervisor Joe Bort, a resolution from Alameda County Board of Supervisors; Assistant Fire Chief Bill Hutt, gift from the Fire Department; Bill Lancot, president of Police and Fire Civil Service club, life membership; Sgt. Jim McLeod, a gift from the Albany Safeway store; Sigrid Oakley, who kiddingly paid tribute to Freeman's "handwork"; and Smith, a jar of peanut butter to Mrs. Freeman, and the retirement badge to the honor guest.

There were many hilarious moments in the program, among which was the presentation of a warrant for Freeman's arrest, prepared by Deputy District Attorney Tom Ross and read by Albany City Attorney Larry Saler. The charges were free of city property, namely Freeman's badge, which he had failed to turn in when he left on Wednesday.

At the end of the program, Stanley Williamson, who attended with his wife, Clara, paid tribute to Freeman for his work on the Judy Williamson case. The five police sergeants were in charge of arrangements. Sgt. Glenn Thompson was chairman, assisted by Sgts. McLeod, Emil Zugnoni, Jim Harris and Carl Lindh. Policewoman Oakley was in charge of reservations and Policewoman Betty Nehls was in charge of the guest book.

A special guest was Freeman's mother, Anna Johns. The couple's son, Donald, and his wife, attended from Richmond. There are four grandchildren and three step grandchildren.

Tables were decorated with huge photographs of Freeman set in star badges. Those reserved for members of the Police and Fire departments were reserved with "No Parking" signs. Photographs for the stars were the work of Police Officer Jim Simmons. Members of the Fire Department did the art work. The artistic ability of Fire Chief Gerald Browne was again in evidence in a large portrait of Freeman which stood by the head table and in a series of cartoons showing Freeman's life, which were copied by Simmons for the slide show. Administrative Officer James B. Turner and Fireman Rich Courtney worked out sound effects and music for the showing.

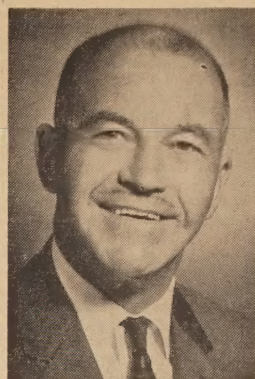

Jack Capeluto of American Florist donated corsages and centerpieces for the dinner. Ruby Helen Fricke made the flyers sent out to announce the party.

Among those attending were nine former or retired members of Albany Police department from out of town, Ukiah, Sacramento, Concord, Fremont and other cities. A delegation from the Berkeley department was headed by Police Chief William Beall. Many attended from El Cerrito PD.

John Pleich of Albany has been named to the Western Fairs Association Advisory Director's Board, it was announced this week by William Straub of San Jose, president.

Elmer Coble will be installed as president. Other new officers include Dr. Arthur Longpre, first vice president; Al Martinez, second vice president; Ralph Hill, third vice president; Neal Clarity, secretary, and Rothschild, treasurer.

Directors include Bernice Boyd, H. F. Call, Joe Dagna, Althea Ippolito, Dorothy Larimer, Harold Olson, Harold Peterson, John McDonald, Charles Silvera, Fred Skinner, Irene White, William Johnson and Bill Garren. The public is invited to attend.

First Anniversary Of Bit of Italy

Chef Sammy Miceli of Bit of Italy at 523 San Pablo Ave., has announced a first anniversary special this weekend and next, special this week and next, Tuesday through Thursday, of all he spaghetti you can eat for 75 cents.

"I want to thank the people of Albany for their patronage," Sammy says. "We're here to stay."

Sammy said it took him a year to find out that Albany is a steak-eating town. As a result, he is now featuring a one-pound New York steak dinner; one pound ground sirloin and half pound steak sandwich, plus that gourmet's delight, steak and eggs after 10 p.m.

He has invited all his friends to drop in and celebrate his first milestone as an Albany business.

Firemen's Auxiliary Auction Tonight

In place of their regular monthly meeting, the Albany Ladies auxiliary of the California State Firemen's association will hold a white elephant auction in the home of Mrs. William Hutt, this evening.

Members and their guests will attend and refreshments will be served.

Proceeds will go to the club's Scholarship Fund for members' children who will be graduating in June from high school and entering any college or trade school in the fall.

1968 Maid of Albany

JOSIE MARTINEZ, lovely Albany High school junior, is shown following her selection as Maid of Albany in the annual contest Saturday night at the AHS Little Theater. She began weeping when it was apparent she was the winner, cried through the coronation and as she promenaded before the audience.

Josie Martinez Selected 1968 Maid of Albany

Josie Martinez, Albany High school junior, was selected by five judges as 1968 Maid of Albany at the AHS Little Theater last Saturday night.

The lovely brunette began crying when the first runner-up, Toni Villa, was named and smiled through her tears from that point until the show was over.

Other special trophy winners were Marilyn Senior, second runner-up, and Rose Marie Ferreira, selected by her fellow contestants as Miss Congeniality.

A field of 13 beautiful girls competed in the bathing suit and formal competition as well as pre-interviews by the panel of judges, Coralie Briggs of the Berkeley Gazette; Joan Underwood, teacher at Linda Del Mar school in Pacifica; Mrs. Joseph P. Bort of Berkeley; Richard O. Clark, mayor of Albany, and Elmer Coble, president-elect of the Chamber of Commerce.

Berkeley VFW, Auxiliary Install New Officers

Berkeley post 703, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its Ladies' auxiliary held joint installation Friday, May 17, in the Veterans' Memorial building, 1931 Center St., Berkeley.

Ralph Beemer, past 14th District commander, assisted by the installing team of San Leandro post 2509, Veterans of Foreign Wars, installed William J. Holliday as commander of the post, while Mrs. Gertrude Brown Smith, past department president, assisted by the Alameda County drill team, installed Mrs. Viola Freeman as president of the auxiliary.

Other new post officers include Gary L. Ramsey, senior vice commander; H. Pat Balen, junior vice commander; Joseph E. Cavanaugh, quartermaster; Arthur C. Tansley, adjutant; S. Bruce Seidmore, judge advocate; Frank M. Gabbert, chaplain; Frederick A. Baker, post surgeon; Carl T. Jorgensen, officer of the day; Thomas W. Caldecott, legislative officer; Ike Kniffen, trustee; Robert W. Young, trustee; Carlton A. Sigelkoff, guard; Frank M. Gabbert, post service officer.

Northbrae Women's Annual Picnic Set

Following tradition of long standing the Northbrae Women's club will conclude the year's activities with their annual picnic on Monday, May 27, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The luncheon will be a potluck affair followed by playing of cards and general fellowship.

Mrs. Merlin W. Drucquer, section chairman, will be in charge of the day, assisted by section chairmen the Mmes. Charles R. Stewart, Robert O. Evans, Edwin S. Irvin, John Pastorino and Robert W. Bennett, as well as new members the Mmes. Everett L. Moore, William H. Reasoner, Clarence O. Saldal, Dorothy C. Zitt, John Rae Gilman and Miss Florence Denham.

ADVANCED FIRST AID

Advanced first aid techniques will be taught at the Berkeley Red Cross chapter in a new series of classes beginning Monday, May 27. Classes will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9:45 p.m. and are open to those who have successfully completed the Standard First Aid course. Persons at least 15 years of age, or in the 10th grade, may earn their advanced certificates.

Berkeley Residents Open Homes to Discuss Integration

Many Berkeleyites will open their homes Sunday, May 26, from 1 to 4 p.m. for discussions of the school integration program. All interested citizens are invited to join one of these informal gatherings where they will have an opportunity to meet neighbors from other parts of town, and to air their attitudes or questions about the new educational plan. Well-informed people will be on hand at each home to clarify details, but there will be no formal programs.

Topics expected to elicit the greatest interest at the "Open Homes" include such things as the maintenance of quality education for all Berkeley students, special classes for high potential or educationally handicapped children, and the logistics of bussing. Guests are welcome to visit homes outside their own area, so that a genuine exchange of opinions can take place.

In Thousand Oaks, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hyde will be hosts at 852 Arlington Avenue. Other homes are located at: 2415 California Street, 1504 Grizzly Peak Blvd., 1733 Vine Street, 2213 Ashby Ave., 2647 Piedmont Ave., 1732 Chestnut Street, 2115 9th Street (where Spanish will be spoken), and 1521 Derby Street (where Japanese will be spoken). Baby sitting or transportation can be arranged by calling Mrs. Rothenberg at 526-0211.

IOOF

Berkeley Lodge 270, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet Thursday, May 23, at 8 p.m., at Berkeley Odd Fellows' Temple, 2288 Fulton Street. Noble Grand Albert P. Brewer will preside. Light refreshments will be served.

Bay Area Vote-In Rally Set For GOP Monday, June 3

Governor Ronald Reagan will be the principal speaker at a nine-county, Bay Area Vote-In Rally to be held Monday, June 3, at 8 p.m. in the Oakland Coliseum Arena.

Program of skilled entertainment by Hollywood and local talent will precede the Governor's address to an expected audience of 14,000.

U.S. Senator George Murphy will introduce Reagan.

The event will be the largest fund-raising rally ever held in Alameda County. Lowell W. Berry, chairman of the Finance Committee, will also be chairman of the affair.

Proceeds from the rally will be used toward financing Republican candidates for the House of Representatives and the Legislature, and for the activities of official Republican volunteer groups.

Featured in the entertainment preceding Governor Reagan's address will be the famous Youth of America, who have made a national reputation for themselves. This teenage group, with its orchestra, has produced professionally-staged shows at Expo '67 in Montreal, on TV and at the Circle Star Theatre on the Peninsula. What makes the Youth of America unique is their performance in the Fred Waring tradition, rather than rock 'n' roll with psychedelic light shows or amplified guitars. The company is in its sixth successful year.

Others on the program will be singers Pat Boone and Connie Haines, and Del Courtney and his 30-piece orchestra.

Berry, chairman of the Republican Vote-In as well as the Alameda County Republican Finance committee, said yesterday: "This will be the grandest, the biggest, the most enthusiastic Republican event ever held in Alameda County."

"The size of the undertaking and the enthusiasm already shown for it is symptomatic of the vitality of the Republican Party in Alameda County and the other eight counties in the Bay Area."

"Arrangements are being made to bring to the Vote-In at the Coliseum Arena, by bus, voters from all of the nine counties involved. There will be ample room for persons interested in hearing the Governor speak on issues affecting California and being afforded a variety of top-flight entertainment."

Tickets are priced at $2.50, $5, $10 and $15. Three huge screens located high in the Coliseum Arena will make it possible for persons away from the stage to watch the Governor and the entertainers, through a new expanded vision system, with the same clearness as if they were seated adjacent to them.

Tickets may be purchased from the Coliseum Arena box office, from Republican Headquarters, 4237 Piedmont Avenue, Oakland, and from all neighborhood ticket agencies.

Health Dept. Rabies Message

Control of rabies is a constant responsibility, stated Harold Van Coops, deputy health officer. "It is a responsibility of the health department to see that puppies are not running loose, that dogs are vaccinated and licensed, and that biting dogs are confined to rule out rabies."

Due to constant vigilance there have been no human or canine rabies cases in Alameda County in the past five years, only sporadic cases in skunks.

Puppies don't get a "take" from rabies vaccination until they are about four months old. They must be protected in other ways—confinement to a yard or a leash. When a dog gets its first vaccination it must be observed for 30 days thereafter, since it may have been infected when it was not immune and vaccination won't cure, it just prevents.

Evening of Music At Oaks School Tomorrow Night

Three groups of student performers will entertain parents and friends with an evening of music Thursday, May 23, at Thousand Oaks school.

The program will be presented during the school day for the children. The evening concert is being given for parents and friends at 7:30 in the school auditorium.

The school orchestra, directed by Miss Carole Smith, will play selections by Handel, Bach, Oliviero and Lecuona. Several sixth grade students will play solos. Bill Utt will be trumpet soloist in "A Trumpeter's Lullaby," with orchestra accompaniment. A cello solo will be played by David Gallagher. A clarinet duet with orchestra will feature Nancy Williams and Donna James.

The glee club, directed by Mrs. Sandra Alsbrook and Talbot Richardson, will sing. It includes sixth grade boys and girls.

The third grade class of Mrs. Jones has been learning to play the recorder. They will give a recorder concert, directed by their teacher, Mrs. Schevill.

Northbrae Auxiliary Spring Luncheon

Mrs. Mimi Laird, colatura soprano, with her accompanist, Mrs. Hazel Gustafson, will entertain, Tuesday, May 28, for the Women's auxiliary of the Northbrae Community Church. The 12:30 annual spring luncheon will be held in Haver Hall, 941 The Alameda, Berkeley. Mrs. Eldon Cofer is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. G. W. Fisk, tickets. Reservations must be made by calling the church office, by May 24.

Regional Approach to Job Problem Asked by Sweeney

"A plan for a regional job-power program to solve the pressing problem of unemployment in Alameda County and other Bay Area counties is the immediate project of Wilmont 'Bill' Sweeney, Berkeley City Councilman and candidate for the Alameda County Board of Supervisors for the 4th district."

Sweeney met with his newly appointed campaign staff to work out details of the program, which he described as "urgent" because "in Alameda County an explosive and tragic situation exists with 73,000 families receiving welfare assistance in Oakland alone, with a large portion of our population frustrated because there is no work for them to do and they are becoming disassociated from the main stream of American life."

"We have seen the tragic waste in lives and property such disassociation can cause in Watts, Detroit, Newark, and other cities where the problem has been allowed to become acute," Sweeney warns.

Sweeney, who takes pride in the fact he was the first Negro American ever elected to the Berkeley City Council (1961), says that with an increasing amount of industry entering the county there are more jobs opening up, "but, particularly among the Negro minority, jobs and the unemployed are not making connections."

As a former State Commissioner of Housing and Community Development and a member of Alameda's Negro minority, Sweeney believes he is better qualified to deal with the deep-seated job and racial problems confronting this area than any other candidate for the 4th District seat on the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, which has always been pure white.

Meeting with Sweeney's planning session were his named campaign staff members: Co-chairmen of the overall campaign effort, Donald R. Johnson of the University of California administration staff, and Berkeley City Councilman Daniel Key; Charles Furlow, treasurer; Jay Gittlesohn, finance chairman; Mrs. Florence Adkins, coordinator of activities; Albert Sweeney, president of the Berkeley Planning Commission of Sweeney's public staff.

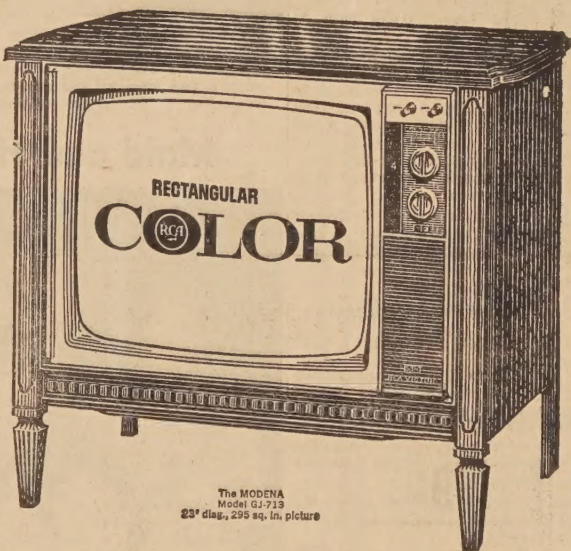

Local co-chairmen were Wilmont Sweeney, Phyllis Lyon and Councilman Joe Carlucci. Other co-chairmen were Carl Mack and Mary Johnson; Oakland, Jim Kim and Robert Reeser.

PITTMAN HONORED

Dr. Allen G. Pittman, Department of Agriculture chemist at Albany, was named the Department's Superior Service Award at ceremonies in the Sylan Theater, Washington, D.C., Monday.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, in giving the award, cited Dr. Pittman for inventing economical water-resistant finishes for other textiles.

Robert E. Hannon Speaker For GOP Assembly Tonight

Robert E. Hannon

The regular meeting of Albany Republican Assembly will be held in Cornell School cafeteria, corner Solano and Cornell Avenues, Wednesday, May 22, at 8 p.m. Principal speaker for the evening is Robert E. Hannon, candidate for United States Senate. He is now chairman of Alameda County Board of Supervisors.

Hannon's speech will cover a number of problems he faces as chairman of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors. One of the most significant problems, in Hannon's opinion, is the ever-increasing crime rate and potentially explosive situations that may arise this summer when planned protest marches take place.

Hannon will express his opinions on these problems and proposed solutions, and it is expected to be an extremely interesting commentary on the problems we face here in Alameda County. He will be happy to answer questions from the floor following his speech.

In the June 4 primaries, voters of Albany will have many choices. The California Republican Assembly, at its March convention, endorsed Max Rafferty for U.S.

Senate and the "Favorite Son" candidacy of Governor Ronald Reagan. In the Alameda County Coordinating Republican Assembly, endorsement was given to: Vossa E. Wysinger for U.S. Congress; Robert E. Hannon for State Senator; Sam Higgins for State Assembly; and for the County Republican Central Committee, Bill Davis, Bruce Seidmore, Tom Miles, Esther Pederson and Bill Vaughns. All candidates endorsed by Republican Assemblies have been invited to this May 22 meeting and will be introduced.

The Republican "Vote-In" rally at the Oakland Coliseum on June 3 is the greatest political event ever held in this county. Governor Reagan will be the principal speaker and he is supported by exciting professional entertainment. Tickets will be available at the ARA meeting. We will have our own bus transportation to the Rally, direct from Security Savings and Loan office, Solano and Cornell Avenues, it was announced. No parking problem. All seats are reserved. Tickets may also be obtained from Edith Sheriff, 526-2464.

The home is a lucrative target for the burglar, according to Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies, which says that stolen property value in each home burglary averages $263, compared to $227 taken in the average commercial theft.

Maid of Albany

Bill Davis was master of ceremonies and 1967 Maid of Albany Sherry Rynn made her farewell appearance and crowned the new maid.

"A Taste of Soul," Alameda rock and roll combo entertained. The audience participated in group singing while awaiting results.

Jim Bates was chairman for sponsoring Albany Jaycees, headed by Dennis Alexander, president. All Jaycees wore dinner jackets from Roos/Atkins as they escorted the capacity audience to their seats.

Miss Martinez now enters the Maid of Alameda County contest in Pleasanton. Prizes for the winner include a trip to Hollywood and a tour of Disney studios, a $250 scholarship from Patricia Stevens Finishing school; $150 cash for working at the fair and $100 cash for wardrobe.

A reception followed at Kirby's in El Cerrito Plaza.

AC BUS TRIP

The mayor and councilmen of Albany have been invited to join a sightseeing tour preview next Tuesday to look at attractions to be seen on AC Transit's summer scenic tour. The tour will operate daily May 30 through Sept. 2.

and Inspector Art Smith went to a local motel, arrested the woman's male companion and found 24 more counterfeit bills. The pair was turned over to U.S. Secret Service, who believe they are part of a ring headquartered in Los Angeles.

ANOTHER ROLLICKING retirement dinner was the one held Friday night at the Fratellanza club for Vern Freeman. One thing about Albany parties of this kind—they're neither maudlin nor dull. Don't forget the next one, which will be for Bob Dennis Friday night, June 7, at the Berkeley House. Yup, we have tickets at the Times office.

OF COURSE it was a typographical error but it's amusing to note that among prizes awaiting the "Maid of Berkeley" was "atrophy."

LYNN ABEL of 1120-G San Pablo writes that the poem from the soldier in Vietnam published here a week ago disturbed her greatly and moved her to write this response:

"We in the peace movement understand as well as anyone in this country the horror our boys in Vietnam experience daily. This understanding is one of the main reasons we are trying desperately to end the war. We believe American men are being needlessly sacrificed. Whether one agrees with this evaluation or not, please let him not accuse us of not supporting our soldiers. We do support them. We want to save them from the grotesque and grueling war life; we want to reunite them with their families and their society here at home."

TICKETS ARE on sale by members of the Police and Fire departments for their annual Ball at Golden Gate Fields clubhouse Saturday night, June 22. Albany Bowl was an early supporter, buying their usual $50 worth of tickets when contacted.

NO WONDER Arrow Glass sponsors a Little League team! A woman called the other day, asking them to replace a window. "It's Little League season again," she laughed. The fellow from Albany Glass replied, "Yup, we consider the Little Leaguers our 10 percenters."

DROPPED BY Security Savings and Loan Friday morning and discovered a club we hadn't realized existed: the Contest Club. They have about a dozen members who meet regularly (and have for many years) to discuss current contests, prizes they've won and exchange information on how to win.

PANEL ON PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES TONIGHT FOR ALBANY DEMOCRATS

Are you still unsure about your presidential choice in the upcoming June 4th Democratic primary?

If so, tonight, May 22, at 8 p.m. in Cornell school library, the Albany Democratic Club will present a program to help you decide. There will be a panel discussion between the local campaign managers of Senator Kennedy and Senator McCarthy.

To date, there is no local campaign manager working for Vice President Humphrey, but if one emerges he will also be invited.

Tim Fine, Albany attorney and past president of the Albany Democratic Club, will speak in favor of Senator McCarthy. Fine is Albany chairman for McCarthy. He will be joined by U.C. Professor Darrel Carter who is the Berkeley campaign chairman.

Representing Senator Kennedy in the debate will be Albany Mayor Dick Clark and Bill Lockier. Clark, an insurance executive, is the East Bay chairman for Kennedy. Lockier is also active in the Kennedy campaign and is administrative assistant to Assemblyman Crown of Alameda.

This should be a very interesting and informative discussion for all Albany residents, and will complete a series of programs designed to acquaint voters with their Democratic primary candidates.

ANNUAL SALE

PBX Club of Richmond will hold the annual Trash and Treasure Sale Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25, 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. at 407 Seventh Street, Richmond. Philanthropic projects for 1968 include Contra Costa Children's Home, Muscular Dystrophy and Toys for Tots. There will be many well worthwhile bargains, the committee has announced.

'Sleeping Beauty'

Jane Stamps Ballet School Presents 'Sleeping Beauty'

The teenage department of Jane Stamps School of Classical Ballet will be doing the complete "Sleeping Beauty Ballet" Sunday, May 26, at 8 p.m. at the Albany High school gym.

The group works together as an amateur ballet company and choose to call themselves "Jane Stamps Ballet Concert Group." There are approximately 30 dancers from 12 to 24 years of age. The more advanced have studied five to six years, others only a year. One boy from the University is helping and has no previous training.

The group raised funds for costumes from a rummage sale, a paper drive and other projects. They hope to pay for programs and scenery from ticket sales.

The dancers spend many hours in rehearsal. While one group is rehearsing another will be stretching to keep their muscles warm and studying or getting their home work done. They also work on costumes and scenery and will do their own make-up. One male dancer, who is a hair stylist, will style the hair and wigs. The fathers and brothers of the dancers will help as stage crew.

The lead dancers are Jane Kelly as Princess Aurora and Rick Gwinn as Prince Charming. Jane is 14 years old and has been studying with Mrs. Stamps for six years. She has been offered a full scholarship with the San Francisco Ballet school, home of the San Francisco Ballet Co.

Rick is a pre-med student at the University of California and has danced for Mrs. Stamps approximately three years.

Jeri Hemple plays the Lilac Fairy. Jeri is 15 years old and has studied about five years.

The part of "Carabosse," the wicked fairy is being played by Paula Badger. This part is quite demanding, as she must not only be a strong and fast dancer, but must have great dramatic ability.

Tina Stamps, daughter of Mrs. Stamps, will do the well known "Blue Bird Pas de Deux" with Ron Lopez.

The cast includes Jane Kelly, Rick Gwinn, Paula Badger, Jeri Hemple, Sheila Larkin, Sheila Morishige, Margie Hardie, Becky Morgan, Kathleen Hagerty, Marianne Gray, Jan Pinkerton, Mary Jo Turner, Marilyn Mordecai, Muriel Day, Carol Moredith, Ina Ippolito, Pam Asp.

Judi Hall, Kathy Olson, Nancy Pinkerton, Connie Cowen, Kim Wallace, Lynn Hunt, Katherine Gorelik, Laurie Schrick, Lorraine Lander, Suzanne De Roo, Terry Turner, Tina Stamps, Ron Lopez, Lar Roberson, Daniel Gold, John Hoagland, Alan Stahl, Ron Wells, Serge and Margrete Matulich.

Stage manager is Chuck Dallas; assistant stage managers, Dennis Dallas and Kevin Hager; lights, Bill Shulz; musical director, Eugene Turner.

Legion Poppy Days

American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Days May 24-25

Members of Albany's American Legion auxiliary unit 292 will be on the streets Friday and Saturday offering citizens poppies to wear in memory of war dead and living heroes.

All funds raised by the program go directly to disabled veterans and their families.

The red crepe paper poppy, replica of the Flanders Poppy, was officially adopted in 1921 as the Memorial Flower of the American Legion and auxiliary.

All poppies being sold in Albany were handmade by patients in Livermore Veterans' hospital. The home of Mrs. Margaret Hanahan will serve as headquarters for workers. Luncheon will be served between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Friday.

Hawaii Slides For Live Wires

"Slides of Hawaii" showing all its serenity will be shown by Florence Watson, world traveler known for her photography, at the meeting of the Live Wires at Security Savings and Loan Friendship room this Friday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Live Wires have just returned from a trip to North Shore and are now preparing for an excursion to San Juan Batista on Sunday, June 30.

Hostesses will be Elsie Parken and Vera Ladame.

Members going to the Orient Sept. 20 are asked to call Eleanor Miller regarding passport pictures.

CHRIS PRICE MARRIED IN TUCSON CEREMONY

Double-ring rites at St. John's Catholic church in Tucson, Ariz., united in marriage Norma Irene Ramirez, daughter of Jesus P. Ramirez and Sarah Pepper Ramirez, both of Tucson, and Ross Christy (Chris) Price, son of Ross Price of 1027 Key Route Blvd., and the late Mrs. Price.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza and chantilly lace in A-design with sculptured empire bodice and chapel length train. The veil was an English illusion mantilla bordered with matching sequined lace and she carried a cascade of bridal roses and an orchid.

Bridal attendants were her sisters, Miss Eloise Ramirez of Tucson as maid of honor and Mrs. George Ryder of Downey and Mrs. George Sortelli of Tucson as bridesmaids. Her niece, Karen Sortelli was flower girl. Ring bearer was Jeffrey Ghidossi of Pleasanton, nephew of the bridegroom. Bridal attendants wore pale pink and rose organza gowns with black panels and carried colonial nosegays of shades of pink carnations.

Michael Steward of Tucson was best man. Ushers included Robert Frakes of Tucson and James McCormick of Phoenix, assisted by the bride's brother-in-law, George Sortelli and George Ryder.

Following a wedding trip to Las Vegas, the couple is at home in Sacramento, where he is employed as industrial and commercial salesman with Shell Oil company.

The bride, a graduate of Pueblo High school in Tucson, attended St. Mary's School of Nursing and the University of Arizona. She was employed by a Tucson clinic.

Her husband, 1959 graduate of Albany High school, received his degree in economics from Stanford University in 1963.

Cortese Brothers Engaged

Lena Marie Durante-J. F. Cortese, Jr.

Pamela Kappadahl

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cortese, Jr., of Albany will be married soon.

Planning to marry in June are Pamela Ann Kappadahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Anderson of Albany, and Richard Michael Cortese.

Both are graduates of Albany High school. He is employed by Station Oil, Inc., and Pam is employed by the Oakland Tribune.

No date has been set for the wedding of Lena Marie Durante, daughter of Mrs. Mickey Durante of Albany, and Joseph Frank Cortese, Jr., who is serving with the U.S. Navy in Vietnam. His fiancée is employed as a beautician at Yolanda's Beauty salon.

Fitzgerald-Eaton Engagement Told

Elizabeth Anne Fitzgerald, daughter of Mrs. Anne Marie Healy of Hayward, is planning an Aug. 10 wedding to Lawrence Ray (Larry) Eaton, son of the Benjamin M. Eatons of 1265 Portland, her mother has announced.

The bride-elect's brothers are Robert Fitzgerald, John and Dennis Healy.

Larry has two brothers, Merle and Douglas.

Grandparents of the engaged girl are Mrs. A. J. Cahill and Leland Fitzgerald. Larry's grandparents are Mrs. D. S. Lawson and Mrs. Myrtle Eaton.

Cabaret Concert

ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL'S percussionist, Debee Blank, samples the French onion soup to be served at the AHS Orchestra's "Cabaret Concert" this Friday evening in the high school cafeteria. She is joined by orchestra concertmaster David McKenna, while officers Carmen Johnson and Shelly Miller serenade them.

AHS CONCERT ORCHESTRA PLANS CABARET CONCERT

The award-winning Albany High School Concert Orchestra will present its final concert of the year this Friday, May 24, at 7 p.m. in the Albany High school cafeteria.

This year, instead of the traditional formal spring program, the 45-piece orchestra plans a "cabaret concert," playing light music as the audience enjoys refreshments. The cafeteria will be turned into a replica of a left bank bistro, complete with subdued lighting, intimate tables with checked clothes, candles in bottles, and food. French onion soup, French bread, cookies, and coffee or punch will be served by the Albany High School Hostess club under the direction of Mrs. Ida Cherry.

In keeping with the light atmosphere, the music will be of the light variety. Works by Ravel, Bizet, Handel and Gershwin will be performed under the direction of Mr. Ernest Dogulas. The program is being organized by the orchestra's students officers, Carmen Johnson, Shelly Miller, Debi Polivka and David McKenna.

The "cabaret concert" is free and open to the public. There will be a small charge for the refreshments.

Art World Gallery Opens in Albany Square

Art World Gallery opened May 10 in Albany Square shopping center, 600 San Pablo Avenue, Albany.

The gallery is exhibiting original oil paintings, and offers a large selection in almost every subject, size and style.

While most of the artist's paintings currently on display are European, local art will be shown at a later date.

All of the paintings at Art World Gallery are available for sale, rent, or lease. The prices, starting at $10, are quite reasonable.

The gallery is owned by Mr. and Mrs. D. Wayne White of Richmond, and is under the management of Mrs. Vi Henson, also of Richmond.

White is employed as Art Director for a San Francisco advertising agency. He is an advertising graduate of Armstrong College in Berkeley, and has studied art at the California College of Arts & Crafts, Oakland.

Manager Mrs. Henson was for 15 years associated with the Richmond law firm of Calfree, Westover & Sheahan. She studied art under Harry Lum at the Richmond Art Center, and has exhibited at the El Cerrito Art Festival.

val. She has sold several paintings.

The public is invited to view Art World Gallery any afternoon of the week. The week-end gallery will be closed Tuesday.

Linda Rae High, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Heater of Richmond, and Robert Lee Rayner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rayner of El Sobrante, were married at 4 p.m., May 11 at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller of Albany.

The Rev. Dwayne Axworthy of Richmond First Baptist church officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a frock of white lace with crepe neckline and cuffs. Her crown of orange blossoms had been worn by her maternal grandmother and she wore her mother's diamond heart necklace. She carried a cascade of white carnations and orchids.

Mrs. David Bezayiff was matron of honor.

Best man was Robert Ritzlaff of Richmond.

The bride's mother wore powder blue lace with corsage of rose and white carnations. Mrs. Rayner selected a lime green ensemble with tangerine carnations.

Following the wedding, there was a dinner at the Miller home.

The bride attends El Cerrito high school. Her husband, a graduate of Richmond Union High school, is employed by Chevron Chemicals in Richmond.
